PRINTED IN THE USA

Welcome to another year ... another fresh start, another grand opportunity to reach our goals, another chapter in this wonderful thing called LIFE!

2021 WAS QUITE A YEAR, but it offered a glimpse of promise as things slowly ventured back to normal. While today's "normal" is quite different from yesterday's "normal", 2021 did allow for the ease of restrictions related to COVID. While the restrictions varied based on what country you resided, we saw an increase of gatherings, promo events, photo shoots, and other face-to-face networking.

WE WERE FORTUNATE, and grateful, to be able to release 22 issues of RHK Magazine in 2021! Our wonderful team never missed a month ... in fact, we were able to publish twice monthly in some cases, thanks to the plethora of submissions we received!

Another accomplishment was our ability to expand our global reach, which now includes networking with models and photographers in USA, UK, Canada, Italy, and Singapore.

LAST, BUT NOT LEAST, was the approach to our subscription-based model. Now, once you subscribe for one low price, you will gain access to our entire library of publications ... over 235 issues featuring the world's hottest glamour and nude models!

Thank you for everything ... I sincerely appreciate each and every one of you! Let's make 2022 a great year!

RED-HOT
TIPS

Don't Let Your Looks Blow Your Interview

The perfect resume means nothing if you can't sell yourself at a job interview. And most interviewers form an opinion before you shake their hand ... potential employers really do judge books by their covers.

So, how can you dress to get your foot in the door?

The most important element when dressing for a job interview is to evaluate your setting. Different offices enforce different dress codes -- an advertising agency, for example, might allow a little more personality than a government office. If the employer has an HR department, ask someone there about the company dress code. When in doubt, dress conservatively.

While you don't always need to wear a suit, keep in mind that you should dress for a position two levels higher than the one for which you are interviewing. If that means wearing a suit, choose a well-fitted, neatly-pressed suit in a dark, neutral color other than solid black.

Even if you opt for a more business-casual look, wear a collared shirt and a jacket. Make sure that all clothes fit well, are clean, and do not have loose threads or wrinkles.

And, although often overlooked, remember it's what is inside that counts. While your interviewer certainly shouldn't see them, it is important to choose the right kind of underwear. According to a recent Calvin Klein Underwear survey that polled 600 men and 400 women (available at survey.com), approximately 70 percent of those polled admit their undergarments are an extension of their personality. In addition, 80 percent say a good pair makes them feel more confident.

"Whether you are wearing a crisp white shirt with slacks or a tailored suit, it's important to set your foundation with a stylish and comfortable set of underwear."

- Jeannie Mai, celebrity stylist, host of Style Network's "How Do I Look" and "Extra" correspondent.

"Consider Calvin Klein's Classic Two Pack Boxer Briefs (www.cku.com). They are 100 percent cotton with a traditional fit, and are sexy, yet functional, with the signature logo waistband. Available in black and white, they can lend added confidence for your interview."

To add the final touches to your dressed-to-impress style, polish your shoes to demonstrate attention to detail. Cleanly groom your hair, and you'll show any respective employer that you mean business!

What is your description of a "great guy"?
For me, a great guy is who could be advertising with a good conduct and very polite. He has to be smart!

What are your turn-ons?
Turn-on to all the really professional people who appreciate the natural way to be a model without prejudices.

Turn-offs?
Turn-off to those with false morals.
